Halco Relocates Phoenix Warehouse

Norcross, Ga., September 29, 2008 – Halco Lighting Technologies’[®] expanding demand has created the need for a larger facility in the Phoenix area and has prompted the company to move to a new location within the city. Halco’s new facility is a fully stocked warehouse that features 20,000 square feet with stacking heights of 22’ that will better enable the company to deliver the exceptional service that has grown to be accompanied with the Halco name.

With upholding Halco Lighting Technologies’[®] service standards, the new location will maintain Halco’s shipping policy; orders placed by 2:00pm local warehouse time will ship the same day, along with the added option of local customer pickups during the operating hours of 7:30am to 4:30pm. Halco is eager to offer the highest and best possible service to its customers and is proud to carry their reputable service through to its new location.

Halco Lighting Technologies[®] is hosting an open house at 6607 West Boston Street in Chandler, Arizona for local customers on October 15, 2008 from 7:30am to 4:30pm.
